Sen. Cropsey presents tribute to Ron Mc Comb for his extraordinary work to save a baby's life

LANSING—State Senator Alan Cropsey, R-DeWitt, today presented an official Senate tribute to DeWitt resident Ron Mc Comb for his “outstanding efforts to save the life” of a 14-month-old baby.

Mc Comb was eating dinner at a Red Lobster when the baby, on the opposite side of the restaurant, began choking. Mc Comb was the only one who responded to the restaurant staff's calls for assistance. He recognized that the baby was having a seizure and worked on the child until emergency medical service arrived.

The tribute stated that Mc Comb “is nothing short of a hero” and that his efforts “are a rarity in today's society.” Cropsey offered his own praise for Mc Comb's heroic act.

“We need more people like Ron Mc Comb in the world,” said Cropsey. “He saw a small child in a life-threatening situation, and he did what needed to be done to save the baby's life. He is a true hero.”
